January 2005 Slalom Rules Changes

Updates for paperless registration

Current:

3.2.2 During registration, entrants are required to sign the event insurance waiver, complete the entry form according to section 3.3.1, and have their vehicle undergo a technical inspection by event officials.

3.3 Entry Form Information:

3.3.1 The entry form shall contain the following information:

4.4.1.1 Vehicle Classification: The technical inspector will confirm that the vehicle has been entered according to make and model only. Should technical inspectors observe modifications, which would cause car reclassification, they shall note these observations on the contestant's entry/technical inspection form. Technical inspectors are not responsible for declaring a car misclassified. This responsibility rests with competitors who are entitled to lodge formal protests. Technical inspectors will not verbally declare their suspicions.

Change To:

3.2.2 During registration, entrants are required to sign the event insurance waiver, and have their vehicle undergo a technical inspection by event officials.

3.3 Entrant Information:

3.3.1 The following information should be collected from each entrant before or during registration:

4.4.1.1 Vehicle Classification: Technical inspectors are not responsible for declaring a car misclassified. This responsibility rests with competitors who are entitled to lodge formal protests. Technical inspectors will not verbally declare suspicions of misclassification except privately to the entrant.
