Standing Committees

- Activities: On the web site
- Membership: Guests were recognized
- Slalom: None
- Rally: None
- Equipment: Charles has been looking into a sound meter and costs range from $100 on eBay to well over $1000 for something like Atlanta Region has. Dennis suggested having the clubs purchase some scales for the use of the members as well as events like the recent Divisional. The 3 new trailer tires have been purchased and Eric is installing them. Rich has offered to donate a tire gauge for use by the trailer towers.
- Newsletter: Nathan is hard at work on a new newsletter. If you have any new content to submit it is welcomed.
- Publicity: None
- Merchandise: The new TAC hats have arrived. Rich has stuff.
- Entertainment: None
- Historical: Keep the scrapbook and archives in mind. If you have digital pictures send them to someone and we'll get them printed for you.

Old Business

Eddie was here but didn't talk about the metal car badges.

New Business

None

Miscellaneous

- Forum: Multiple people have mentioned they have been to Huntsville Stars games and all 4 seats were not filled. Crow Mountain prep is well under way. The first cleanup day is scheduled for July 29.
- Want Ads: Jim Burruss' Super 7 clone is still for sale.
- Past Events: Mike Cavanaugh wanted to thank everyone for their help with the TVR SE Divisional event. Everyone was very pleased with the event. Rich talked about passing through an old car museum in Hardy, AK. Mike also went to the "double cross" in Atlanta last weekend. Eddie talked about going to the F1 at Indy.

Meeting adjourned at 8:02 PM.
